THE Numb. 426.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, July 5, 1753.

MADRID, March 27.

THE King has ſent Orders to his Vice-roys and Governors in America, to regulate their Conduct entirely by that of the Engliſh Admirals and Governors there, and to follow the Example of Admiral Knowles, with regard to Ships which, without proper Paſſports, make Uſe of improper Colours, in order to diſturb the Navigation. They are alſo ordered to take particular Care, that the Guarda Coſtas do nothing that may give Offence to the Britiſh Nation. The Levies which are making in this Kingdom are carried on with ſo much Succeſs, that it is thought all the Regiments, both of Horſe and Foot, will be complete towards the Middle of next Month at leaſt. Twelve Ships of the Line which are building at Corunna, are to be launched ſome Time next Month, and there are actually above 6000 Hands employed to finiſh them. All the Ships and Frigates which are building in the other Ports will be finiſhed about the ſame Time.

Palermo, March 10. The Sea has been ſo much agitated, and the Tides ſo ſtrong for ſome Days paſt, that the Waters roſe above the Dykes, and overflowed this City, which occaſioned a great deal of Damage, eſpecially to the Fortifications. We have received the agreeable News, that four of our Zebecks which were ſent to cruize againſt the Corſairs of Barbary, met with three Algerine Men of War, and after a very obſtinate Engagement, ſunk one of them, and obliged the others to ſheer off.

Madrid, March 20. It is aſſured, that the Pruſſian Envoy has failed entirely in his Negotiation, and that the King is determined not to grant to any Nation the Liberty of trading to his Dominions in America. The Troops which are to form the Camp in Catalonia, have received Orders to be ready to march. The Men of War and Frigates lately built in the ſeveral Ports of this Kingdom are provided with their Guns, ſo that it's expected they will be ready for the Sea before the End of next Month, but their Deſtination is not yet known.

Vienna, March 28. The Camp which is to be formed this Year near Egra in Bohemia, is to conſiſt of about 40,000 Men, and that at Olmutz in Moravia of 13,000.

Amſterdam, March 30. We have received Advices from Surinam, which are far from being agreeable. The white Slaves begin to copy after the Negroes. The Son of a Gentlewoman, Owner of the Plantation of Zipelo, a young Man of three and twenty, happening to be in the Fields by himſelf, his Mother's Slaves fell on him, and cut him to Pieces. We foreſee that we muſt ſend more Troops thither; but it is a hard Matter to find any that are fit for the Climate. If the Republic had any Pandours or Croats in her Service, they would be the fitteſt to reſtore the Tranquility of that Colony.

Rochfort, April 7. The two Men of War which the Court ordered to be fitted out at this Place will ſoon be ready to put to Sea, and are to join three others which are equipping at Breſt, in order to form a Squadron, on board of which ſome Troops are to be ſent to reinforce thoſe at Pondicherry.

Hague, April 15. The Affair of the Free Port, after all the Conſideration due to a Thing of ſo much Conſequence, has paſſed in the Aſſembly of the States of Holland, and after it has been approved of by the other Provinces, will be carried into Execution, which will render the Trade of the Republic very flouriſhing.

Cork, April 3. On the 30th ult. was ſeized by Mr. James Dillon, a Sloop for running Wool to France, and bringing in Return, Brandy and Tea. She is now in the Cuſtom Houſe Dock, but the Information can be ſo well ſupported, that it is believed no Claimant will appear. The ſame Officer made a Seizure ſome Days before of 200 lb. Weight of Tea, upwards of 100 lb. Weight of Coffee, and ſome Geneva. This extraordinary Vigilance is in a great Meaſure owing to the indefatigable Zeal of the Collector, in animating and encouraging the Officers under him to the faithful Diſcharge of their Duty; and the fair Trader plainly perceives the ſalutary Effects thereof.

LONDON.

April 4. Early on Saturday Morning laſt Mr. Lamb and Mr. Cleverly, two of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, were diſpatched from the Secretary of State's Office to Scotland, in Search of ſome Perſons concerned in the late Rebellion, who are ſaid to be lately arrived there from France in Order to ſtir up freſh Commotions in that Part of the Kingdom.

We are informed from Edinburgh, that on Tueſday the 20th paſt, Dr. Cameron, Brother to Lochiel, who had returned from France two or three Days before, was taken in the Houſe of Duncan Stuart of Glenbucket, by a Party of Soldiers from the Garriſon of Inverſnaid, and carried to that Fort, from whence he was brought on Monday following to Edinburgh, under a ſtrong Guard of General Bland's Dragoons, and committed Priſoner to the Caſtle.

Letters from Paris inſinuate, that there is not the leaſt Danger of ſeeing the Tranquility of Europe diſturbed, the French Miniſtry and their Allies having adopted a new Syſtem of Politics, whereby they engage to maintain Peace in Chriſtendom by keeping conſtantly in a Poſture of War, provided the Powers, whoſe Intereſts are oppoſite to theirs, will always, give up every Point contended for, or ſomething like an Equivalent when this cannot be done.

According to private Advices from Madrid, the Augmentation of Twelve Thouſand Men in the Land Forces is ordered with a View to the Affairs of Italy or Corſica, there being no Probability in ſound Policy, that Spain dreams of ſending an Army to be ſlaughtered or deſtroyed by Diſeaſes on the African Shores, when it might be employed with a fair Proſpect of Succeſs in Europe.

We have Advice from Gibraltar, that a very rich French Felucca has been lately taken by a Corſair, and that a Letter had been received at Cadiz from Tencriff, giving Intelligence of, and alſo deſcribing a Spaniſh Ship that had been carried off from thence, with a Deſign of going a Pyrating to the Weſt Indies.

We have Advice that a Dutch Ship in her Paſſage to Surinam, was in Lat. 47. about Ten o' Clock at Night, the latter End of December laſt, haled by a Ship, who in Engliſh aſk'd them to ſpare ſome Water, but the Dutchman bid them keep off, on which the other attempted to board him, an Engagement enſued, which laſted 'til Day break, when the Dutch Veſſel which ſuffered much, though too hard for her Enemy, obliged her to ſheer off, and by a Language they heard them ſpeak, imagined it to be a Barbary Corſair.

April 5. We hear that a Bill is brought into the Houſe of Peers, to permit Perſons profeſſing the Jewiſh Religion to be naturalized by Parliament.

Yeſterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordſhips were pleaſed to put the Somerſet Man of War of 70 Guns into Commiſſion, and give the Command to Capt. Holmes.

April 5. On Thurſday, at the Aſſizes at Croydon for the County of Surrey, William Hurley was tried and convicted for cruelly murdering Joſhua Newton, in St. George's Fields, in April laſt. This Villain had been drinking with Newton for ſome Hours, 'til he was fuddled, then invited him to lie with him at his Lodgings, and in the Way thither knock'd him down with a large Hedge-Stake, afterwards beat and cut him in a moſt terrible Manner, and then robbed him. Since his Conviction he has confeſſed the Fact, another Murder, and many Robberies. He was executed this Morning at Croydon.

We hear from Kingham, near Chippingnorton in Oxfordſhire, that a Farmer's Wife of that Place brought him three Children, an Ewe two Lambs, a Cow two Calves, and a Mare two Colts, all in one Week.

April 5. On Friday laſt, at Eleven o'Clock, came on, before Sir Thomas Birch, at Warwick Aſſizes, the Trial (which laſted about 6 Hours) of Miſs Dorothy Smith, charged with poiſoning her Aunt Mrs. Dorothy Martin, Relict of the Revd. Mr. Martin, of Curdworth near Coleſhill. Mr. Serjeant Willes, Mr. White, and Mr. Peake, were Council on Behalf of the Crown; and the Priſoner pleading Not Guilty, ſhe was defended by Mr. Caldecot, Mr. Hewit, and Mr. Geaſt. [The Gentlemen who opened the Body were examin'd, and it was their Opinion that, by the Appearance of her Stomach and Bowels, ſhe died of Poiſon. Many other Evidences were examin'd; but no Proof could be given of the Adminiſtration of the Poiſon; and a Point of Law ariſing, whether the Girl that bought it, who was under nine Years of Age, could be admitted an Evidence, which was learnedly debated for above two Hours, it was determin'd in the Negative; and many Perſons of Reputation appearing to teſtify for the Priſoner's good Behaviour towards her Aunt from her Infancy, ſhe was acquitted.

April 7. We hear that Yeſterday a Vote paſſed the Houſe of Commons for raiſing the Sum of Seventy Thouſand Pounds by Way of Lottery; 20,000 of which is to be applied to the Purchaſe of Sir Hans Sloane's Curioſities, 10,000 for the valuable Collection of Manuſcripts of the late Lord Oxford; the remaining 40,000, together with 7000 bequeathed ſometime ſince towards re-building the Cottonian Library, to be laid out in erecting a public Building, which is to ſerve as a Repoſitory for the above mentioned, and for the Payment of the Salaries of proper Perſons to take Care of them.

They write from Kinſale in Ireland, that a French Veſſel laden with Tea, China, &c. reckoned worth 5000 l. was lately ſeized near Crookhaven, in the Diſtrict of Baltimore.

A Match is made by a noble Lord, that he ſends a Letter Ninety Miles in two Hours, which is to be done on Newmarket Heath. This is leſs by three Fifths than is done by Carrier Pigeons. Mr. Salmon, in his Univerſal Traveller, Page 347, ſays, that when the Ships arrive at Scanderoon, the Factors ſend Advice of it to Aleppo by Carrier Pigeons bred there, which fly home in about five Hours, tho' it is near 80 Miles diſtant.

From Teſchen in Upper Sileſia we hear, that one Andrew Schmid died there the Beginning of laſt Month in the 124th Year of his Age. He married in 1652, and his Wife dying fifty Years after, he took another, by whom he had four Children. His old Age was not attended with any Infirmities.

April 7. Saturday ſe'nnight the Aſſizes ended for the County of Devon, at which four received Sentence of Death, viz. John Slocombe, John Williams, and Thomas Bennett, for Horſe ſtealing; and William Hewiſh for poiſoning his Father.——Hewiſh was tried on two Indictments, firſt for murdering his Mother (of which he was acquitted), and ſecondly for poiſoning his Father, of which, after a long Trial, he was found Guilty, and executed the next Day, (agreeable to a late Act of Parliament)——At the Gallows he owned he had beat his Mother in a cruel Manner ſeveral Times; once in particular before his Father, who ſaid, when he had almoſt ſtrangled her, Sirrah! Wilt thou murder your Mother before mine Eyes? To which he replied, I muſt do it, and will do it, by G——d. He was often heard to ſay, when any one reprehended him for miſuſing his Mother, That ſhe was an Hell born Whore; and that if he had 100 Weight of Gunpowder, he would blow the Hell-born B——h to Hell. He denied the poiſoning of his Father; but acknowleged he deſerved Death for his barbarous Uſage to his Mother. His Body was delivered to the Hoſpital for Diſſection.

April

April 10. On Saturday last, Hurley, condemned at Croydon Assizes for the Murder of Mr. Newton, was executed on a Gallows near the above Place, which has stood there a considerable Time, tho' never before made use of: He confessed the Murder of a Man near Bristol, besides that for which he suffered. His Body was delivered to the Surgeons immediately after Execution.

At the Assizes of Hertford, a Fellow was tried for robbing of the Ostler of the Inn at the Roe Buck at Hatfield of 84 l. in Money told: This Villain came into the Yard desiring Work, when the Ostler told him he could not employ him without his Master's Leave, and accordingly acquainted him with the Affair, who, in Compassion, order'd him to be a Helper. The next Morning the Fellow passing by the Ostler's Room, and observing the Door open, went in, broke open his Chest, and took out the above Sum, with which he made off. This Robbery being soon discover'd, Search was made after the Robber, who was taken a few Miles off bargaining for a Watch; and on searching him there was only 1 s. 7 d. of the Money expended; but being carried before Justice Wilkins was committed to Hertford Goal, and last Assizes tried and capitally convicted, and when the Judge left the Town order'd for Execution: But the compassionate Ostler, sensible he had recover'd all his Money but 19 d. went about the Town of Hatfield with a Petition to be sign'd for a Reprieve for the unhappy Convict, which was done by the Ministers and principal Inhabitants, and presented to Justice Clive by himself, from whom he obtained a Reprieve, which he carried to the Prisoner about two Hours before his Execution; and when he received it, he fell down on his Knees, and thank'd God and him for his Deliverance.

April 10. The Lords of the Admiralty have put the Sea Horse Man of War in Commission, and given the Command to Capt. Martin.

April 12. Tuesday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordship's put in Commission the Salisbury Man of War now at Plymouth.

The Alexander, Mundy, of New London, for New York, was lost in her Passage. The greatest Part of the Crew saved.

The Christian, Dick, of Glasgow, from Milford for Rochelle, is lost in the Bay of Murray in South Wales; the Crew saved.

The St. Michael, Ellis, from Toulon, ran ashore in the River of Hamburgh, but by lightening her is got off again with some Damage.

The Delight, Capt. Darlow, from New England for South Carolina, is lost. The Captain and the People were saved by a Brigantine bound for New York.

On Wednesday last Anne Williams was tried here for poisoning her Husband. In the Course of her Trial it appeared that she sent Richard Painter, their Servant, for some White Mercury; that after her Husband's Death, she told the said Richard Painter she had given it to her Husband in some Pap; that after her Husband had eaten the Pap, she desired him to draw her some Drink, which he did, and drank some of it himself, when he was immediately seized with violent Vomitings and Purgings; that her Husband told his Sister, whom he had sent for at his being taken amiss, that his Wife (Anne Williams) was a wicked Woman, that he was very well in the Morning 'til after she made him eat some Pap, which (he said) had done his Business for him, and that he should die; and that he died on the Morrow Morning, when his Body appeared as if mortified. These and other such Circumstances, the little she had to say for herself, and her calling no one to speak for her, prevailed on the Jury to find her Guilty: And the Judge immediately pronounced the proper Sentence upon her, which would have been put in Execution Yesterday, had not some Gentlemen petitioned his Lordship for a Respite for her, which he has granted 'til Friday next. She, indeed pleaded her Belly; but a Jury of Matrons being sworn she was found, Not Quick.

April 12. Last Week Mr. Coulthers, a Farmer in the County of Essex, aged eighty three, was married to an agreeable young Lady under thirty, possessed of a plentiful Fortune. [We may easily guess his Portion, to——die before his Wife.]

April 16. They write from Genoa, that the Spanish Troops are in full march for Barcelona; that vast military and naval Preparations are making throughout the whole Kingdom; and that the Spanish Fleet will be at Sea by the Middle of next Month.

We hear that the Sentence pronounced by a Court Martial, lately held at Jamaica, upon some Pyrates, is confirmed, and that Orders will soon be sent to that Island to cause the same to be put in Execution.

We are well assured a Proposal is on Foot for the better Peopling of the Island of Jamaica with white People, and giving Encouragement to cultivate the Lands already uncultivated, and for the better Distribution of the same; a sure Method to reduce the exorbitant Price of Sugars.

April 16. We hear that by the Bill to prevent clandestine Marriages, it will be made Felony for any Minister to marry, or register any Marriage in any private House, Chapel, &c. as is now done at the Fleet, May Fair, &c.

We hear that the Duty of Soap, Candles, and Leather, three necessary Articles in common Life, amounted last Year in England and Wales, to 587,254 l. 8 s. and 3 d. Halfpenny. It is a Pity that an equivalent Tax was not laid on the Luxuries of Life, and this taken off, which so greatly affects the Poor, and enhances the Price of Labour, to the great Loss of the English Manufactories.

April 17. The Rencounter at Paris, in which the Honourable Mr. Hamilton has lately been engaged, is related to have been as follows: The Duke de Maurepas, and the Duke de Villeroy's Son, were together in a Box at the Play House, and the latter Gentleman leaving his Seat to go upon the Stage to one of the Actresses, Mr. Hamilton, who had been standing behind, asked Leave of the Duke to sit down 'til his Return; which the other perceiving, came back in his Passion; and after much ill Language, laid his Hand on his Sword, and carried Mr. Hamilton behind the Scenes where they drew; and Mr. Hamilton run him twice thro' the Body. When the last Packet came away he was not dead, but given over: Mr. Hamilton fled to the Earl of Albemarle's; but as his Conduct in this Affair has not been at all blameable, it is thought it can be attended with no ill Consequence to him.

April 19. The British Ships taken some Time since, and carried to Cadiz, on Suspicion of carrying on a Contraband Trade, have been released, and are sailed on their respective Voyages.

April 24. Advices from Algiers (in Barbary), inform us, that the Plague has again broke out in that City, and spread to several Places in the Country, in spite of all the Dey's Precautions to stop it's Progress.

PHILADELPHIA.

May 4. Four of our Indian Traders, who were taken Prisoners in the Twightwee Town last Summer by the French, carried to Canada, and from thence sent to Old France, are returned with Capt. Budden, having been released out of Prison at Rochelle, by the Solicitation of the French Embassador, who was so good as to clothe them, and send them to England, the French having stripp'd them naked, and used them very hardly.

On Tuesday, the 8th Instant, one Hugh Irwin, of Springfield, in Bucks County, was killed by the Falling of a Tree: And the same Day Josiah Wilkinson, of Buckingham, in the above County, received a Blow with an Axe accidentally from his Servant, that cut him into the Brain, of which it was very doubtful whether he could recover.

May 31. We hear from Salem, that the House of William Tufts was burnt by Lightning last Week; also a Barn in Glouscester County.

June 7. On Wednesday the 30th past, the Reverend Mr. Cradock, from Maryland, preached in the Academy Hall, a most excellent Sermon on the Advantages of Learning.

Last Week was raised and fix'd in the Statehouse Steeple, the new great Bell, cast here by PASS and STOW, weighing 2080 lb. with this Motto, Proclaim Liberty throughout all the Land, unto all the Inhabitants thereof; Lev. xxv. 10.

ANNAPOLIS.

On Monday last, arrived here the Snow Russell, Capt. John Brown, in seven Weeks, from London; with whom came Passenger, Mr. George Clark, of Charles County, Merchant. By him we are informed that Governor SHARPE would certainly imbark on board Capt. Cockson, by the first of June, the Ship being ready for sailing, and waiting only for the Governor.

One Evening last Week, a Countryman having drank rather too much, lay down to take his Repose in the Street, where he slept so soundly, that some Body took from him, without waking him, about nine Pounds in Money, his Hat, and Boots, which they walk'd off with.

A few Days ago, a Negro Lad belonging to Mr. Pollard Edmonson, of Talbot County, going into the River to wash, was drowned.

The Managers of the ANNAPOLIS LOTTERY hereby give Notice, That not having as yet received Accounts of all the Tickets sent out, and as they cannot possibly be prepared, with the Wheels, and other Materials, to draw at the Time appointed, so they find it necessary to postpone the Drawing to a farther Day: And they being desirous it should be done in a public Time, have appointed the first Friday in the next Provincial Court (the 14th of September next), at which Time, the Lottery will certainly be drawn, without further postponing.
